

True Worship, Through Us, To Others, For God Alone

True Worship: We believe that true worship is the act of glorifying God in every aspect of our lives as the product of a growing, powerful relationship with Him. We give our talents, wisdom, and resources for the purpose of honoring God in every way possible, and as a ministry specifically through music and the arts. We acknowledge that true worship comes in many different forms and styles but is always expressed in spirit and truth.

Through Us: We believe that God desires to use us as instruments of His worship both through our daily walk with Him and through the artistic worship we offer, born out of humility and thanksgiving. As we glorify God with our hearts and lives, we believe that God moves through us to change us more into the likeness of Christ so we might worship Him more fully.

To Others: We believe that, while our individual worship is often a personal expression of our adoration of God, we are also called to join with others and express our worship publicly for the encouragement and exhortation of the Church, and the evangelism of the lost. To that end, as we live our lives we do so knowing that those around us are watching, and as we lead worship through the arts we recognize the needs and desires of those we lead and seek to meet those needs and desires as fully as possible that they may embrace God without obstacle or distraction.

For God Alone: We believe that the ultimate goal of our worship is give God the glory, honor, and praise He deserves in obedience to His commands. As our audience of One, we desire His pleasure in our worship above all else. We believe that while God is not made any more complete by our worship, He does desire to experience our worship as an expression of our love and adoration. And we look forward to the day when our worship will be made perfect in His presence as we join the angels and all creation before His throne.
