

John 4:16-20

4. What shame and baggage might be carried by the woman as revealed by Jesus' recounting of her life? Why do you think Jesus dove into a personal conversation with her?
5. In verses 19-20, how did the woman deflect her shame and baggage?
6. Do you tend to deflect your shame, sin, or struggles with others? with God? Describe what that looks like in your life.

John 4:39-42

7. What were the results of the Samaritan woman sharing with her village all that Jesus had told her?
8. The Samaritan woman's story of what Jesus did for her is called a testimony. Do you have a testimony of what Jesus has done for you that you can share? If so, begin to write it below.

Commitment

Write a commitment to Jesus based on what you have learned from this message on living water.

I will _____.

Optional: As a follow-up to today's study, listen to the Everything Jesus podcast discussion of this encounter with the Samaritan woman: <https://everythingjesus.buzzsprout.com/1740202/8489097>

Begin with prayer. Listen with care. Eat / Engage with another. Serve. Share your story.

As we continue in this season of Lent, share your story of what Jesus has done for you with someone who needs to know about Jesus' gift of living water.
