Connection

What is something you are thankful for?

Content

“One of the greatest things you can do to grow in your faith, hope, and love is to share your faith.”

What does this statement say to you?

Our Role

1. Read 1 Corinthians 15:1-6. Who is one person in your life you would want to share the good news with?

2. What do the following passages say to you about being a messenger of the gospel?

Matthew 9:37-38

John 10:16

Romans 10:14-15

3. 1Peter 3:15 calls us to be ready to give an answer for your hope. What is your answer for your hope you have in Jesus?

4. 1 Corinthians 3:6 explains that God has made each of us the way we are for a reason. How are you uniquely equipped to reach the people around you?

Our Message

5. Read Romans 5:1-5. These verses are filled with the good news of salvation in Jesus. What phrase jumps out at you from these verses about why this is such good news?

Have you recently shared this good news message with anyone? How was it received?

6. “Without faith, hope and love we will be left to ourselves to determine our own value, meaning and hope.” How have you seen this statement applied in the world around you?

7. Each person who comes to Jesus for salvation receives the faith, hope and love that He uniquely provides. Because of this, we weave these themes into our explanation of the gospel when we share Jesus with others. How might you bring in these themes of faith, hope and love as you share the gospel?

Commitment

8. This week, make the commitment to share your hope in Jesus with the one individual that came to your mind earlier. Share with the group how you need prayer with the conversation.

Pray...Look and Listen...Do. (2 Thessalonians 1:11) Pray, asking Jesus to help you “look and listen” for opportunities around you and then “do” His work.

Begin with prayer. Listen with care. Eat / Engage with another. Serve. Share your story.

This week, Listen with care. Often, we can B.L.E.S.S someone by listening to their needs and being there for them. Would you like to give any updates to the group on someone you have shared about in the past?
